

The assumption that was wrong

Measured on 248 detections across 4 cameras. The deployment cameras sit at 22-29%, close to training, not at the assumed 6-12%. Caveat: these are heights of DETECTED people, so the true distribution has more small people in it and these are biased upward.